

Directions

From Washington, DC:

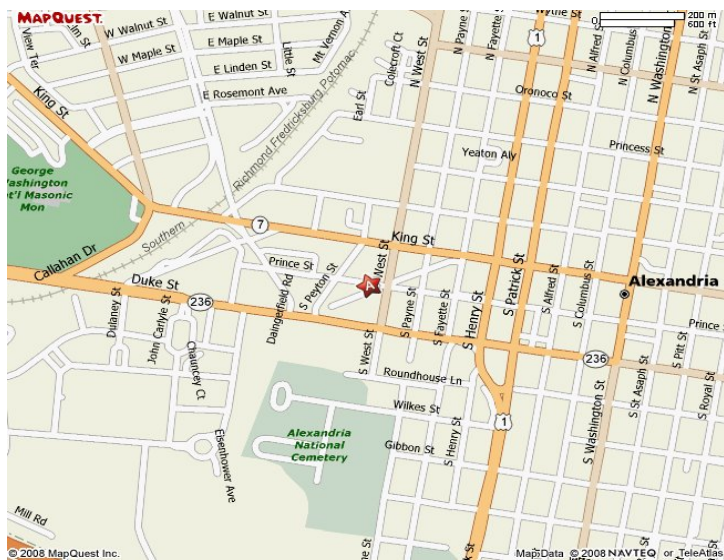

Travel to Virginia and take the George Washington Memorial Parkway (which becomes Washington Street in Alexandria). Make a right on Kings Street and head down King Street until you reach Peyton Street. We are on the corner of Prince Street and Peyton in the red brick building with the name of Prince Street Plaza on the exterior.

From Route 1 South:

Travel north of Route 1 until Duke Street. Make a left on Duke Street. Come about a mile and make a right turn at Peyton. We are on the corner of Prince Street and Peyton in the red brick building with the name of Prince Street Plaza on the exterior.

From Falls Church and points West:

Travel East on Route 7 (Broad Street, Leesburg Pike and eventually King Street when you hit Alexandria) pass the George Washington Masonic Temple. Travel another quarter mile to Peyton Street. Make a right turn. We are on the next corner. We are on the corner of Prince Street and Peyton in the red brick building with the name of Prince Street Plaza on the exterior.

METRO

We are three blocks from the King Street Metro. Follow the signs to King Street. Head east to the Potomac River. Make a right on Peyton Street.

PARKING:

There is plenty of metered parking on the street surrounding our building.
